Enrique Camarena Award

Guidelines

history

Enrique (Kiki) Camarena was a Drug Enforcement Administration Agent who was tortured in Mexico in 1985. Agent Camarena believed that one person would make a difference. His sacrifice serves as a catalyst to encourage others to make a visible commitment to eradicating drug abuse from our home, schools, communities and nation. The National Family Partnership (NFP) and its network of individuals and organizations (including Informed Families/The Florida Family Partnership) continue to deliver his message of hope to millions of people every year.

purpose

The Enrique Camarena Award recognizes and honors one parent and one community leader who has made a significant contribution in the field of drug prevention in Florida, and who personifies Agent Camarena's belief that one person can make a difference.

criteria

Nominees must:

- Be an individual, not a corporation or organization
- Be a professional, volunteer, community activist, or parent
- Be a positive role model, committed to a healthy lifestyle
- Have made an outstanding contribution in the field of drug prevention

guidelines

Nominations must be submitted with the attached Nomination Form.

Nominations may be made by a person or organization.

Nominations should be in narrative form and no more than one (1) page in length and include the following:

- Specific achievements, such as new programs developed through nominee's efforts
- Specific programs, publications, etc., that the nominee has participated in that encourage and motivate others to take active roles in drug education and prevention
- Leadership and organizational abilities of the nominee
- Time and effort contributed by nominee
- Success in recruiting and motivation of others

Two awards will be given honoring one parent and one community leader. Winners will be selected by Informed Families and announced in January 2005. All decisions are final. Nominations must be received by Thursday, December 1, 2005. Late nominations will not be accepted. All nominations become the property of Informed Families.
